

Dekco.ai: Personal and Sensitive Personal Data Processing Consent Form

1. I have been informed about the Privacy Policy of Dekco, and that this is available on its website (Available at: <https://dekco.ai/privacy.html>), and have understood the contents thereof.
2. I understand that the Privacy Policy mentioned in Paragraph 1 above provides information about how my personal and sensitive personal data may be collected, used and disclosed by Dekco, other entities, other eco-system partners across the National Digital Health Ecosystem (“NDHE”), where applicable.
3. I understand that my personal data and sensitive personal data may be collected only with my valid and informed consent, and that it may be used, processed and stored only in accordance with existing laws, including the Information Technology (Reasonable security practices and procedures and sensitive personal data or information) Rules, 2011, the National Digital Health Mission Health Data Management Policy, as applicable, and the Privacy Policy issued by Dekco.
4. I understand that my personal data and sensitive personal data may be shared with other entities, including those within the National Digital Health Ecosystem, only with my informed consent, and only for the following specific, lawful, and clear purposes:
  1. By me with third parties, to enable healthcare providers to access digitised scans and medical records related to me, or linked to my account.
  2. By third parties (such as diagnostic labs) with me, to enable cloud storage and digitized sharing of scans and medical records.
  3. By medical practitioners/providers, to enable consultation.
  4. By Dekco, in anonymised and aggregate form, for data analytics and related purposes.
  5. For any other purposes as may be outlined in Dekco’s Privacy Policy.
5. I understand that I have certain rights that I enjoy as a data principal over my personal and sensitive personal data, in relation to its collection, use and processing. These rights relate to control over my data, withdrawal of consent, confirmation and access, correction and erasure, objection of disclosure, and portability of my personal data. These rights are available to me in the manner set out in existing healthcare data and data protection laws including the Information Technology (Reasonable security practices and procedures and sensitive personal data or information) Rules, 2011, NDHM Health Data Management Policy notified by the National Health Authority and the Privacy Policy issued by Dekco.
6. I understand that the terms of the Privacy Policy may change, and I will be notified of the same at the time Dekco of such change through a notice on Dekco’s Website.
7. I also understand that I shall be provided with an opportunity to give my specific consent in case of any further collection, use, or processing of my personal data which exceeds the purpose for which it was collected, through the registered email and/or mobile number associated with my account.
8. I understand that I have the right to revoke my consent for processing of my personal data at any time in the manner specified under the Privacy Policy, and such revocation will not in any manner result in penalty or loss of any benefits whatsoever to which I am otherwise entitled by the Central and respective State Government or any healthcare providers.

Having read and understood the points mentioned above, I hereby give my informed consent to allow Dekco to collect, use, share or process such personal and sensitive personal data, in order to enable me to access services provided by Dekco.

I understand and agree to Dekco providing these services in a manner that is in accordance with the Information Technology (Reasonable security practices and procedures and sensitive personal data or information) Rules, 2011, National Health Data Management Policy, as applicable, and Dekco’s Privacy Policy, any information security policy, data archival and retention guidelines, or any other policy that may be notified from time to time for the implementation of these above mentioned policies, and any other law that may be applicable.
